

Not only should the DO not call be enforced, it should include non-profit and police/fire department solicitation. Telephone access should be for private contact, period.